

I would highly recommend the Groves Family to minister at your place of worship for concert setting, revival time, or just a morning or evening of good gospel singing. The music is uplifting and the testimonies are very inspiring.

This family not only sings the message of God, but they walk the talk. We have had the Groves Family many times over the past six or seven years and we have never been disappointed.

Pastor Larry L. Leonard
Grace Fellowship church
Sanford, Florida